RON'S REPORT

Hello boys and girls. I hope we will soon get some kind of warm spring weather.

First off, I have to ask all the members who rent tables for two favours. Number one: please put a cover on your table before loading it with your precious possessions. Number two: the shows are open until 1 p.m., please don't leave early! If you are called away or have to be somewhere on a tight schedule, tell me about it when you come in to set up. This way we can make arrangements to have someone else cover the table after you leave. It's not fair to the public, who pay an admission, to get into the show and then have to look at an empty table or more. The same goes if you can't make a show and have made a table reservation. Don't just not show up. Give me a call saying that you can't make the show and try and give me enough lead time so that I will be able to do something about covering your table. Most of you boys and girls are really good about all of this. However, there is the odd member who lets it just slip his mind once in a while. So what I'm asking is just to try harder!

Our June show date, which incidentally is Father's Day, has been our show date for over 40 years. However, the Lumby Club disregarded our show date and decided to put their show on the same weekend so some of our folks were up there and it left us with less tables than usual. Of course, there were also some health reasons which sometimes comes on suddenly. It didn't seem to deter the visitors though as you all noticed. It was crazy busy. Even though Rhonna was in helping me at my tables there were times we could hardly keep up. I'm not saying it was all sales. Lots of it was answering questions and socializing. Though, I know you will all be surprised at this: I sold a rifle! Now that is REAL news because you know how seldom that happens, don't you? I think generally sales for everyone were pretty good. Dave Worfolk and I both made our expenses.

There was a Police Collectors' Show the day before at which Rhonna had a table. She told me it was her best show in about four years. So maybe a trend is being set for collector shows.

By the July 13 show all of the construction around the building is supposed to be finished. The office staff will be moving back into their renovated offices for the first time in a year. I'm hoping the work around the front of the hall will also be finished and we can use the front doors and foyer again. It's a lot less crowded for the people taking admission and memberships, etc.

In the last newsletter I mentioned the joke Canada Post played on everyone, and how our costs of mailing were increased. I also told you if you could get your newsletter by email, then tell Dawn at the Club table and leave your email address. Several members spoke to me during the last show on this subject. There are quite a few, like myself, who don't have a computer nor know how to operate a computer. They all said the same thing though. They want to keep on getting the newsletter and suggested maybe an increase in the dues to offset the postage increase. We didn't have a directors' meeting after the show as Mike Wallace, our treasurer, was away. I'll bring it up at next month's meeting and we'll see just what comes out of the discussion. I'll give you a report next month.

Here is another interesting June show item. I told you about Lumby having a show the same weekend, well, member Terry Lee attended Lumby on Saturday then drove down to our show and covered two tables on Sunday. That is dedication! We all offer our thanks to you Terry and we hope it was worth your while. Terry can't make the July show but we'll see him again soon.

So our next show is July 13. There are few if any tables left not booked. You can check though by calling Dave at 604.880.4706 or call me at 604.522.3609. Also, as many of you know already, the CMEC is having a gun show at the museum in Chilliwack on July 27. For more information call Dean at 604.532.8609, email cmec@shaw.ca. the address is 4550 Petwawa Rd., exit 119 – 7 km east. I've booked my tables!

I guess you folks all remember the Lions Club are putting on their show August 16-17. The best part of the show is the Sunday breakfast they treat us to. Now you remember to book tables, call Fred Cooper at 604.765.5874.

I've just heard – Gord Bader's troubles are finally over. The RCMP made a cash settlement out of court. So they can now take a deep breath and go on to enjoy life. Good going, Gord!

Well boys and girls, that covers just about everything that I know right now. So till next time, be good to each other.

Cheers,
Ron
