Ron's Report

Hello boys and girls. We're starting another year of shows, collecting and socializing.

The other morning, I was out for my morning walk and heard someone call my name. It was a one-time member, a Winchester collector, George Swann of Maple Ridge. We had a short visit at the intersection before another car came along. I never had time to ask him to come out to Evergreen Hall on show day and re-join.

More bad news. I've just learned that a former HACS member from some years ago has died at the age of 70 years. His name was Greg Yu. As a club member he was studying to become a dentist. He leaves a wife, daughter and son. Our condolences go out to his family.

Art called today and we discussed (what else) the shows. He would like me to spell out the items our club expects to see on your table. Naturally, old guns, Winchesters, Marlins, Ballards, Stevens and the like. NO brand new guns that are available from your local gun shop. We're not here to compete with someone who is paying taxes and wages. So, yes, you can bring along a hunting rifle you no longer use. Or even bring along anyone's hunting or target rifle that is not being used anymore. We don't want to see any brand new imports filling a table either. Any military rifle fits in and, of course, military equipment.

Many collectors like to see military insignia, badges, shoulder patches, medals, helmets, etc. Of course all types of bayonets, swords, fighting knives and survival knives. As well as custom made knives and rifles. Old catalogues are popular, that is gun and sporting catalogues, ammo catalogues also. Most gun, knife, ammo and military research books fit in well. Of course gun parts are a must.

What we want to guard against is the flea market element! Nor do we want tables full of newly imported "stuff". Lots of folks collect lots of different things. Our club is a club representing gun, knife and militaria collectors. Let's keep it that way!

It's happened again! A mad man murdered his two beautiful little daughters Christmas Day! What can I say that I haven't said a lot before? This month's NFA Journal has an article written by Blair Hagen. I read it and certainly agree with his thoughts on paying more attention to mental illness rather than saddling honest gun owners with a lot of expensive laws as we have seen. None of these "goodie goodie" expensive laws have done anything to stop the mentally ill people from committing these heinous acts.

Boys and girls, I've got some more very sad news. My dear friend and club member, Charlie Stewart, is in Richmond Hospital with pancreatic cancer for which there is no cure. He called me to tell me about it. He hadn't been very well for some time. He just got worse so his wife called an ambulance and he was taken to the hospital. After a lot of different tests, that's what he learned and was told it was moving quickly. Maybe it's time to say a prayer for Charlie.

Also in the bad news column, James George had a break-in at his place. Here are some missing items: black laptop compact; Winchester M97 trench gun, 12 ga. serial 943880; Snider sergeant's model serial unknown, stock stamped DC BC fore stock SA; Win. M59, SA 12 ga, serial 75682; Lee Enfield No. 1 MK3 Sporter serial 43932; CIL cal. 22 RF, Bushnell scope serial 534031; Win-Cooey M600 cal. 22 RF no serial; Win. P14 Sporter 303BR, unknown serial. If you run into any of these guns, contact Maple Ridge RCMP or James George at 604.315.8412.

The January show surprised everyone I think. We had 182 visitors and lots of the members. The weather was on our side as it rained on Saturday and washed away the snow and ice. When I left the hall the temperature was 12 degrees and clear. You're all waiting for this. No, I didn't sell either of the two guns I brought. However, I made expenses and had a lot of really nice visiting. This should have gone under bad news. Gary Mauser wasn't at his table. Art said he called that he had fallen and broken his shoulder. Back to the show. I saw quite a few guns leaving under new ownership. Dave Worfolk told me he had a good show, more than his expenses I think. He told me some unknown person left him a present of some gun barrels as well. Dave, it's starting out as a good year! The January show is always kind of special for Art Hoivik and Al Amundson. Both of them have a birthday just ahead of the show. So they can both celebrate a birthday by buying something they like for a present. Oh, by the way, they are both past the age of consent!

During the show a man stopped by my table to see if I had parts for the VERY RARE "Ithaca single barrel trap gun". He showed me the forearm which was beautiful. I've never ever had parts for the gun. In fact, I've only handled one before. That belonged to gunsmith, George King, whose shop was in Qualicum, Vancouver Island. George collected shotguns. His collection was five guns. If he found one better than one of his five, he bought it and sold the one it replaced. I saw his collection and they were guns I probably will never see again. The best one was a London made custom SxS with gold inlays. It could be disassembled without tools. Each part had a gold number inlaid so you knew the order it was to be assembled. George had learned shotgun building in London, England and was the very best gunsmith I've ever met!

Now boys and girls, it's a new year so it's time to pay dues. The dues are still only $40 per year. You can pay Jennifer at the door or send the dues and information to the club box. I'll see that Jennifer gets the envelope. Also, if you are a yearly table holder, it's time to prepay your tables for the year. Here's how it works. There are 10 one-day shows per year. If you pay up now, you only pay for 9, that's one free. So, it's 9 times 20; that's $180 per table, per year.

Remember the March 17-18 show is getting close. Don't be late as the tables are going fast and there are only 600 tables to rent. Get right on it and call Al Amundson now at 604.941.8489 and book your tables. I'm sure you'll have a good time.

At the meeting after the show, finances were discussed and we decided the admission for the 2019 March show will have to increase to $10. Everything seems to be costing us more each year and we don't want to cut our charitable donations and let the kids down, do we?

Well, boys and girls, I think that just about covers anything I needed to tell you. So until next time, be good to each other.

Cheers for now,
Ron
